

Peking University Institute of Public Governance

Bulletin

11

The Institute Held the Fourth Executive Meeting of 2021

On December 21, the 2021 fourth Executive meeting of the Institute of Public Governance of Peking University was held in Liao Kaiyuan Building. Director of the institute Yan Jirong, deputy directors of the institute Li Haiyan, Yan Jie, Huang Huang, Ju Hua, and administrative staff attended the meeting.

The meeting reviewed and summarized the work achievements of the Institute in 2021 in administrative affairs, scientific research, academic activities, platform construction and other aspects, and discussed the work specifications of case and database management.

Peking University Public Governance Forum Party politics and national modernization: the Communist Party of China's Centennial struggle experience was Held

The Public Governance Forum of Peking University, hosted by the Institute of Public Governance and the School of Government of Peking University, was held online on Nov 26. Fifteen experts and scholars from Peking University, Renmin University of China, Tsinghua University, Fudan University and the Party School of the CPC Central Committee, Tianjin Normal University, China Agricultural University, Capital Normal University and People's Public Security University of China delivered keynote speeches, and nearly 300 teachers and students attended the meeting.

"The Construction of China's Modern State Governance System" (Korean edition) selected in 2021 Sejong Books (Academic Field)

In December 2021, Yan Jirong, dean of the School of Government at Peking University and director of the Institute of Public Governance at Peking University, wrote a book titled "The Construction of China's Modern State Governance System" (Korean version), which was selected as the "2021 Sejong Books (Academic Field)" by the Korea Publishing and Cultural Development Agency. The book was translated and published by the Sungkyung Institute of Chinese Studies in March 2021. As soon as the translated work was published, it gained wide attention in the Korean academic community.

